

6516207636.txt

We feel that XM radio should be able to provide instant weather and traffic information at any time just as all other radio stations. This information is valuable to me whether I am traveling in my local area or on the Interstate across the country.

If there is information that needs to get out to the traveler, or home bound, it should not be restricted to the local broadcasting. BUT should be available on XM Radio also.